

Plantation Police Department
Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve
Patriot Award

On June 13, 2011, the Florida Committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) recognized the Plantation Police Department for their extraordinary support of U.S. Coast Guard reserve employee Kelly Mason. Officer Mason, who currently is assigned to the Plantation Police Department Traffic Unit, has been in the Coast Guard Reserve for over 11 years and continues to serve his country with pride and integrity with the rank of Lieutenant JG.

ESGR is a Department of Defense Agency that seeks to develop and promote a culture in which all American employers support and value the military service of their employees. 48 percent of our military force resides in the Reserve Component which is comprised of the National Guard and Reserve. The men and women who serve in the Reserve Component are unique in that they also have civilian employers

The Plantation Police Department received the Department of Defense Patriot Award which was created by ESGR to publically recognize companies and individuals who provide outstanding patriotic support and cooperation to their military employees.

Shown in the photo from left to right are: Mr. Warren Lubow ESGR Area Chair, Chief of Police Howard Harrison and Officer Kelly Mason.