

Stay away from matches and lighters.

To prevent fires, keep your siblings away from matches.

A million houses are burnt down every year.

You should have a fire escape plan.

Fire can be very dangerous.

Inform every one of safety procedures at all times.

Remember to always be careful around matches.

Electricity can start a fire, too.

Stay fire smart and don't get burned.

Make the right choice when it comes to fires.

Always get out of the house when there is a fire.

Remember, if you catch on fire – stop, drop and roll.

The more you know about safety, the better.

Don't leave a candle lit when you are not home.

Oxygen is used to help people breathe.

Never play with fire.

Tell people when you see a fire.

Get to the nearest exit when there is a fire.

Each house is damaged badly when it comes to fires.

To get burned by fire hurts a lot!

Be careful around flames.

Understand fire rules.

Read about fire and safety.

Never put fire in your mouth.

Every person should practice fire drills.

Don't play with lighters.

FIRST PLACE
CITY-WIDE ESSAY
Brittany Sheckman
Central Park Elem—4th grade